

Friends of the Schola play a vital role in the life of the choir. With the support of the members, the London Oratory School Schola is able to continue its life as a liturgical choir as well as an established concert choir both in the UK and in promoting the British choral tradition around the world.

As a Friend of the Schola you will receive many benefits every year and kept up-to-date with all the news and events. Income from the Friends will go directly to the Schola Foundation charity which supports the work of the Schola in its day to day role, as well as specific projects ranging from touring around the world to recording and commissioning music.

Friends Membership - from only £35 per year. You will get the following benefits:

Discounted Tickets

Enjoy a 20% discount on all Schola concert tickets.

Regular updates

You will be the first to know about what's happening with the choir and all forthcoming events through the Friends of the Schola newsletter 'Schola News' sent to your home three times per year as well as email updates.

Members Musical Evenings

A 'musical' drinks evening with an opportunity to meet the musical director and other members of the Friends of the Schola is held every year.

Friends Recital

A 'Friends' private recital in the Little Oratory (Brompton Road, London) and invitations to treble recitals in the London Oratory School Chapel each term.

Open Rehearsals

You will be given the opportunity to attend selected open rehearsals, a chance to see how a top class choir works.

Information will also be sent to you about obtaining tickets to the annual Schola barbecue which takes place every summer in the beautiful surroundings of the Oratory Gardens in South Kensington, London.
