

ENQUIRIES ABOUT RESULTS – CANDIDATE CONSENT FORM

Important information for candidates:

GRADES CAN GO DOWN, AS WELL AS UP!

If The London Oratory School (‘The Centre’) makes an enquiry about the result of one of your examinations, after your subject grade has been issued, there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original mark is confirmed as correct, and there is no change to your grade.
- Your original mark is raised and your overall subject grade may be higher than your original grade.
- Your original mark is lowered and your overall subject grade may be lower than the original grade you received.

To proceed with an enquiry or appeal, you must complete and sign this form. This tells the Headmaster that you have understood what the outcome might be and that you give your consent to the enquiry being made.
